DIVERSITY WORKSHOPS FOR THE NEW CURRICULUM

Together for Humanity offers two, one-hour interactive presentations that supports and enriches the implementations the NSW syllabus. These presentations are run by our teams of Christian, Jewish and Muslim presenters from a variety of cultural backgrounds who demonstrate friendship and respect regardless of differences.

Stage 2: History: Community and Remembrance*

CELEBRATIONS OF OUR DIVERSE COMMUNITIES

We engage students in exploring common and diverse celebrations of significance in Australia and the world, our presenters share their stories and challenge assumptions.

Stage 3: History: Australia as a Nation & Geography: A Diverse and Connected World*

OUR DIVERSE & CONNECTED PEOPLE & PLACES

Students hear our stories relating to how migrants have contributed to Australian society. We lead students on an exploration of similarities, differences and relationships between people, places, cultures, customs and beliefs, perceptions and the importance of intercultural understanding.

FREE WORKSHOPS for the first 100 schools: Due to funding from the Australian Government Department of Social Services we are able to offer this program for free up to 100 schools. Book now to secure your free workshop.

Getting the most out of our Diversity Workshops for the New Curriculum

Free Deakin University Intercultural Understanding Survey

Teachers are invited to use our free online survey to gauge students' strengths and possible challenges relating to Intercultural Understanding. This tool is based on new research by Deakin University into intercultural understanding in schools. We can also provide guidance to teachers about how to use this tool optimally.

Free Online Resource Difference Differently

Students can explore diversity with this free interactive online resource. Aligned with the Australian Curriculum, Difference Differently offers modules in English, History, Geography and Civics & Citizenship for students in Years 3 to 10. Difference Differently helps develop young Australians' intercultural understanding through the use of video, audio, images and interactive learning activities. Complemented by professional learning modules for teachers, Difference Differently is a powerful and engaging resource suitable for all Australian schools.
