FOCUS ON CHINA

China (one of the world's oldest civilizations) is a country of immense size and diversity. Visitors are often surprised at how modern and the excitement of planning a trip here. The capital, Beijing, features ancient architecture and modern royal gardens, and is the perfect gateway to the Great Wall, the ancient Silk Road, and the capital of 13 dynasties. Hundreds of palaces and temples were built here, including the famous Tomb of Emperor Qin Shihuang, with its Terra Cotta Warriors and Horses. A city both ancient and modern, Nanjing has many places of interest, such as the Confucius Temple and the Sun Yat-sen Mausoleum. China's largest metropolis, Shanghai is a paradise for shopping and dining. Of course, no visit to China would be complete without a cruise on the stunning Yangtze River, with its renowned Three Gorges.

Structure of travel brochures

When looking for a travel brochure it is important to look for the following:

- Name of the country
- How do you travel to the country
- World map with the location of the country
- Landmarks to see/ Things to do
- Food that is special in that country
- Celebrations special to that country
- Weather in that country
