

Lesson 1 – Worksheet 2

Name: _____

Date: _____

1. Colour Australia on the world map below.

2) Label the states, territories and capital cities on the map of Australia below.

3. Use the words from the box below and complete the cloze passage about Australia.

Sixth ocean country Queensland Northern snow Sydney

Australia

Australia is a _____ in the southern hemisphere.

It is a large island continent and the world's _____ largest country though it is sparsely populated. Most of Australia's people live around the edge near the _____. This is due to the vast desert that makes up the middle of the continent.

Australia rarely experiences sub-zero temperature, but _____ does fall on some mountains in the South East.

Australia has six states – New South Wales, _____, South Australia, Tasmania, Victoria and Western Australia. It has two major territories – the _____ Territory and the Australian Capital Territory.

The most populous states are New South Wales and Victoria with two of the largest cities (Melbourne and _____).

ANSWERS

Australia is a country in the southern hemisphere. It is a large island continent and the world's sixth largest country though it is sparsely populated. Most of Australia's people live around the edge near the ocean. This is due to the vast desert that makes up the middle of the continent. Australia rarely experiences sub-zero temperature, but snow does fall on some mountains in the South East.

Australia has six states New South Wales, Queensland, South Australia, Tasmania, Victoria and Western Australia. It has two major territories – the Northern Territory and the Australian Capital Territory. The most populous states are New South Wales and Victoria with two of the largest cities (Melbourne and Sydney).

Name: _____

Date: _____

Australia (modified)

1. Colour Australia on the world map below.

2. The states and territories are listed. Label them on the map of Australia below:

New South Wales
Queensland
Victoria

Northern Territory
ACT
South Australia

Tasmania
Western Australia

Bonus: Write any major capital cities you know!

3. Use the words from the box below and complete the cloze passage about Australia.

country

Queensland

Northern

Sydney

Australia

Australia is a _____.

Australia has six states – New South Wales, _____, South Australia, Tasmania, Victoria and Western Australia.

It has two major territories – the _____ Territory and the Australian Capital Territory.

The states with the most people are New South Wales and Victoria with two of the largest cities (Melbourne and _____).

Name: _____

Date: _____

Australia (extension)

1. Colour Australia on the world map below.

2. Label the states, territories and major capital cities on the map of Australia below.

3. Use the words from the box below and complete the cloze passage about Australia.

sixth ocean country Queensland Northern snow
Reef Sydney estimated

Australia

Australia is a _____ in the southern hemisphere. It is nicknamed the 'Land Down Under'.

It is a large island continent and the world's _____ largest country though it is sparsely populated. Australia is _____ to have a population of 24 million people. Most of Australia's people live around the edge near the _____. This is due to the vast desert that makes up the middle of the continent.

Australia rarely experiences sub-zero temperature, but _____ does fall on some mountains in the South East.

Australia has six states – New South Wales, _____, South Australia, Tasmania, Victoria and Western Australia. It has two major territories – the _____ Territory and the Australian Capital Territory. The most populous states are New South Wales and Victoria with two of the largest cities (Melbourne and _____). The capital city of Australia is Canberra.

Australia has some iconic landmarks including Uluru, The Great Barrier _____, and the Sydney Opera House.